Salamone Named Select man

Philip J. Salamone, who has been active in the Shawsheen Village Association, was elected by the Selectmen Monday night to join them on the board.

Salamone was the unanimous choice on the second ballot to serve out the remaining year of former Selectman Alan French's term. French resigned after the March elections this year.

Salamone was sworn in on the spot by Town Clerk Elden R. Salter, and was immediately barraged with a schedule of upcoming meetings and projects.

He said he was eager to go tell his wife, who would be "very surprised." One of the other selectmen joked that she might not be surprised, but she sure wouldn't be seeing much of him in weeks to come.

The first ballot Monday night, the "nominating ballot," narrowed the field of candidates whose names had been tossed into the ring for the vacancy to Salamone, James L. Abramson, Lawrence S. Spiegel and Atty. Lawrence J. Sullivan.

Chairman Susan Poore at the outset had explained that the four voting selectmen would continue to cast rounds of ballots until one of the candidates received three votes. When a candidate did not receive a single vote, she said, his name would be removed.

Water, Sewer Rates Increase

Andover residents, still in the process of adjusting to this year's tax increase, are now faced with hike in water and sewer rates.

Both will be retroactive to January 1 and for a family with typical consumption of 7,000 gallons of water every six months, that will mean an increase of about $20 a year for water alone.

Only families connected to town sewerage will pick up the sewer tab, which will show an increase of approximately $14 a year.

The selectmen Monday night voted to increase the sewer charge from $.30 to $.40 per hundred cubic feet of water in an effort to "catch up" with the rising cost of operating and maintaining the town's sewer division, as well as the town's assessment as a member of the Greater Lawrence Sanitary District.

The town has been falling more than $100,000 short of its policy of meeting both of those costs through billings to water customers on town sewerage. The total cost is approximately $410,000, whereas users have only been assessed about $300,000 a year.

Selectman Richard J. Bowen called the move "amply justified, as disastrous as it may be."

Larry Higgins of Summer Street questioned why only the people on the sewerage system should pay the capital costs. If the town builds a school, he said, it is supported by the whole community.

Bowen contended that there should be some effort made to relieve the general taxpayers, who supported all of the operation and maintenance of the sewer system until two years ago.

The current tax rate, he said, reflects 50 cents in the form of a "subsidy" by the general taxpayers to the sewer fund — or

Anxiously Waiting

Susan Ellen Pearler, leads a group of Andover High seniors awaiting the presentation of diplomas during commencement exercises at Lovely Field last Wednesday night. Other graduation photos, stories inside.

Officials of the Crowninshield Corp., which plans renovation of Sacred Heart school building into apartments were in the process of evaluating their planning this week, following the granting of a variance for the proposed work by the zoning board of appeals.

The board filed its decision with the town clerk Monday, including in its approval a number of conditions which must be met by the development firm.

Also, this week the selectmen took initial steps toward the acquisition of Sacred Heart playfields and Cardinal Cushing gymnasium, approving a non-binding agreement with the Brothers of the Sacred Heart to but the properties for $325,000.

The option, binding on the part of the brothers but not on the town, is contingent on the purchase of the Sacred Heart Building by Crowninshield Corp.

The board of appeals in its decision, which followed a hearing on the petition in February, placed certain conditions, which Crowninshield officials are now reviewing.

Annie C. Harris, vice president of Crowninshield, said Wednesday the firm is now in the process of "seeing where we are and re-evaluating. We are checking the restrictions placed by the zoning board and see no problems with most, although a few need to be

Shades Of Night Face Brighter Hue

Andover residents who don't want their street lights four times brighter and bluer may speak up now — or they could forever be under the nighttime spell of 4,000-lumen mercury vapor lamps.

The Selectmen Monday night postponed a decision on whether to convert present incandescent street lights to mercury vapor ones as the Massachusetts Electric Co. has proposed, after the discussion turned from costs to aesthetics.

If the town does not go along with the conversion program, the electric utility will increase the cost of maintaining the 1,000-lumen incandescents by $7332 a year, and it won't install new ones.

The cost of converting would cost the town $16,122 per year, with the $7,000 difference itself representing about an 8 percent increase in the street lighting budget.

Selectman Susan T. Poore, however, said it was difficult to reconcile an increase in cost with a loss of "quality of life" and "residential quality," and Philip J. Salamone, in a citizen role before his election to the board, asked what if some streets didn't want the new mercury vapor lights for aesthetic reasons.

He contended that the appearance of a street can be changed by the brighter lights and asked if neighborhood opinions could be considered.

Mrs. Poore said the street lighting budget had been con-

Board Allows For 'Citizens Petitions'

A special place on the agenda for residents to be heard without prior notice became a permanent part of the Selectmen's meetings Monday night, and the attorney for a couple who wants to buy some town property was the first to take advantage of it.

Atty. Helen Comeau represented the Casaceli's of 37 North St., who are interested in an adjacent landlocked acre the town took for taxes in 1972. She noted that the land has not generated any income for the town since that time.

Meanwhile, having received some encouragement from the town, the Casaceli's have bought a horse and built a corral on the land. The horse is being boarded elsewhere until the land is purchased.

The selectmen took the matter under advisement, and Chairman Susan Poore noted that the board will never react immediately to matters brought before them under this "Citizens Petitions" slot on the agenda. A 15-minute limit will be established, and citizens will be heard on a first come, first served basis. They may sign up at the Town Manager's table before the meeting.

The other way residents may bring problems before the selectmen, Mrs. Poore said, is by having their matters placed directly on the agenda. To do that they contact the Town Manager before 4:30 p.m. on the Wednesday before a Monday meeting.

Marijon Hindman, 10 Castle Heights Road, chose the older method Monday, and led a delegation of Castle Heights-Joyce Terrace residents who would like to see their streets taken over by the town.

She said all of the residents but one wanted the private ways, which are "impassable" in many places, accepted.

Years ago, she said, residents put in $300 to $400 each to have the road laid out, and they've since tried to keep up the road themselves. She said she and a neighbor last year got hot top and did some repairing of their own.

Daniel Frishman, 14 Castle Heights, noted that digging for a sewer tie-in from Smithshire has left the road in worse repair, and manholes sit well above the roadway. Larger trucks coming up for trash collections and the like have magnified the problems.

The matter will be taken up further with the Town Manager, Department of Public Works and Planning Board.

Town House Topics

Recycling Effort Nets $1399

Mrs. Lolli Sumberg of the Andover Recycling Committee presented a check for $1399.11 to the Selectmen Monday night — the proceeds from last month's recycling auction.

Selectman Richard Bowen noted that the volunteer group has turned back close to $7,000 to the general fund in four years, and said he feels the funds should be earmarked for something special — such as advertising to promote recycling — rather than be thrown "like a pebble into a pond."

Mrs. Sumberg said the committee feels the same way and added that next year they hope to expand the new consignment and flea market aspects of the auction.

Memories Bring A Smile

Selectman Bowen Monday night suggested that a letter of condolences be sent to the family of Mrs. Armano DeFelice of Pine Street, an inveterate Town Meeting over the years.

One can smile in remembering her style, he said, and at the same time be saddened by her passing.

Schoolmen To Meet Tuesday

A preliminary report from the committee to study declining school enrollments will be on the school committee's agenda Tuesday night, as well as appointment of a non-partisan delegate and alternate to that group.

Committeemen Joseph Finn and Casimir Kolaski have been interviewing interested persons who do not currently have youngsters in the school system, to serve on the study group along with parents from each school.

Kolaski and Colleague Alan Doerr will also suggest policy manual changes at the 7:30 p.m. meeting in Stowe School.

Three Major Items Are Appealed

Three items of particular interest will be facing the Andover Board of Appeals when it meets July 7.

The Raytheon Co. is seeking to erect two 50-foot towers at its Lowell Street facility, while Mohammed 'Khusro is seeking permission to establish a permanent outdoor recreation camp on Jenkins Road near the North Reading line.

The new owners of Indian Ridge Country Club are also seeking variances for some conditions that were not transferrable with the recent sale of the property.

Openings And Closings

The Bay State Gas Co. has been given permission by the Selectmen to open streets for gas main repairs and replacement in front of the Internal Revenue Building, at 10 Elm Court, and in Walnut Avenue from High Street to Maple.

Meanwhile Mass. Electric will be allowed to put underground electric conduits in Arundel Street, north from Burnham Road.

On the request of Jessie O'Shea, Washington Avenue will be closed to traffic from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. June 25, for a block party.

Business Pleasure

The selectmen Monday night approved the Sunday Amusement License for a pinball machine at the Andover Grill, 40 Park St., which now has only a license for a juke box. They also approved transfer of stock in the Andover Cordial Shop, 92 Main St., to Cornelius K. Koh, 3 Appletree Lane, while wishing him luck, and approved a change of managers at the Town Deli.

Historians Participate In Bazaar

The Andover Historical Society will participate in the Andover Sidewalk Bazaar Saturday, June 25, from 10 to 3 o'clock.

The town's historians will offer the public a three-part program at the Amos Blanchard House, 97 Main St. under the direction of Mrs. George Bragdon, chairman for the Society's special events.

One attraction will be historical slide shows put on by George Glennie. A show on Andover's Bicentennial Parade will alternate with a show entitled "Andover's Main Street at the Turn of the Century."

Another attraction will be the Society's Barn Museum, open only during mild months. Jack Custer will conduct visitors through the barn's many collections. There will be home arts demonstrations employing such old kitchen tools as apple corers, choppers, etc.

In addition, there will be a variety of educational exhibits under the supervision of Mrs. Leon Winstrom and Mrs. Gilbert Cromie. A tour of the Society's herb garden will be handled by Mrs. Frank Carter. Mrs. Barbara Bro will demonstrate flax spinning. Miss Cynthia Carter will exhibit needlework. Old-fashioned cookies and their recipes will be available for sale.

Hostesses for this open house will be under the supervision of Miss Barbara Loomer, the Society's hostess chairman.

Some Society members, including president Don Hayes, Jr., will be dressed in historic costumes.

Cancer Testing Program

At a recent meeting of the American Cancer Society's Greater Lawrence Unit, final plans for an area-wide colon cancer screening program were announced. This free community service project, which is being co-sponsored by the Greater Lawrence Pharmaceutical Association, will start on June 19, and continue through June 25. During this period, interested individuals, especially those over the age of 40, may obtain their free take-home test kit at any one of the following area pharmacies: in Lawrence, Family Pharmacy, Leahy's Pharmacy, Letourneau's Pharmacy, Lyons Pharmacy, Monette's Pharmacy, Nahill's Drug Store, Packard Pharmacy, and Remeis Pharmacy; in Methuen, Community Drug Store, Conlin's Pharmacy, and Saba's Pharmacy; in North Andover, Finneran's Drug Store and North Andover Pharmacy; and in Andover, Hughes Pharmacy and Liggett Rexall Drugs.

The test to be used in this project, according to Dr. William Shibley Elias, Project Medical Advisor, is a relatively new technique called the "guaiac test" which is a highly sensitive test for minute or "occult" traces of blood in the stool. It is well known that one of the early signs of bowel cancer is occult blood in the stools. Dr. Elias noted that when detected at this early stage before the onset of any symptoms, approximately eighty percent of the cases of colon and rectum cancer could be successfully treated.

The patient completes the test by following a recommended diet and completing a stool smear for three consecutive days. The completed test slides are then mailed to either Bon Secours' or Lawrence General Hospital's Laboratory where all analyses will be conducted.

The free test kit includes complete instructions as well as a pre-addressed envelope for returning the slides for testing.

In a pilot screening program held in January of this year, 2.8%

A Summer Experience Abroad

Checking Itinerary

By Linda Corbett

Two Andover girls were rushing around for last minute hair cuts, packing, address collecting and some quick language study this week, before being propelled into faraway cultures for the summer.

Donna Pantaleo and Beth Burwell, chosen earlier this spring to be American Field Service Americans Abroad, learned only a couple of weeks ago they were being sent to Turkey and Colombia respectively.

Yesterday, Beth literally took off for parts unknown. After a stopover last night at the University of Miami, she was to arrive today for two days of orientation in Chile, and Saturday will fly to the Colombian capital of La Paz.

While she knows that she'll have a sister, 18, and brothers 14 and 15½, and that her parents both work for an oil company — she doesn't know in what town or even which end of the South American country she'll live. One thing she does have going for her is three years of Spanish, and she feels she'll be in pretty good shape "as long as they talk slowly."

Donna will leave Monday for a town outside Istanbul, though her family hopes to spend a cooler summer at the sea. She'll have a day in New York and two more in Istanbul before she settles in here AFS family of sisters aged 15, 17 and 22, parents and a grandmother.

Donna's communication problem will be far more challenging. Her two youngest sisters speak "very poor" English, she's told, and the rest of the family, none at all. Her two-day stay in Istanbul will include extensive study in the language and she's already boning up on the "important" words such as "hello" and "goodbye" and, for the Turkish mother who is reportedly a great cook, "This is delicious."

But Donna is all packed and "raring to go" and says she's not too worried as long as she has her trusty Turkish dictionary and phrase book.

Her advance information has told her Turkey will be very hot and very dry and she's to bring "modest summer clothing." She took that to mean to leave her halter tops at home, and she's packed T-shirts and jogging shorts and a bathing suit or two.

South of the Equator, on the other hand, it'll be winter — not snowy cold, but cool — and Beth took long sleeved shirts, corduroys and jeans, and "a nice skirt or two." Teenagers in Colombia dress much the same as they do in the States, she said.

Since it'll be winter, Beth also assumed she'll be going to school, and she actually considers that a plus because she'll get to meet more people. The credits, however, won't count toward graduation here.

Beth and Donna attended a day-long orientation session at Radcliffe College a while back, and were among the few who knew they'd be going abroad, but didn't know where.

Beth said she'd been home about 15 minutes when up the walk came Alexander Z. Warren, president of the AFS abroad, with her letter of assignment.

"It was quite a coincidence," she said.

The girls expect to return early in September to join their senior class.

Donna is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Pantaleo, 4 Bradley Road, and Beth is the daughter of Mrs. Linda Burwell of McKenney Circle and Grant Burwell of Pine Street.

Andover AFS is also sending two students aboard for an entire year. Emily Kearns, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Kearns of Pleasant Street has been in Malaysia since March, while Richard Kiker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Kiker, Kathleen Drive, is awaiting his foreign assignment.

Friends Of Haven Fete Doris Hudgins

At a luncheon given in honor of the retiring Haven Director, Doris Hudgins, more than 200 senior citizens assembled to express their love and appreciation, at West Elementary School, Tuesday, June 14.

Mrs. Hudgins will terminate many years of selfless service to The Haven and Andover's elder citizens June 30. Mrs. Ola Coleman, past president of The Haven Associates, served as mistress of ceremonies and presented the tokens of the group's affection and appreciation. George Reynolds, current president of the Haven Associates also addressed the group and presented a gift. The kitchen squad at West Elementary school also presented a gift and expressed their appreciation for Mrs. Hudgins' help in making the hot lunch program so successful.

In response, Mrs. Hudgins singled out for special appreciation Richard Barron, manager of the Andover School lunch program, and Eugene Frulla, the principal of West Elementary School, for their sensitive awareness of the needs of the elders and their willing service. After the luncheon dancing was enjoyed by all.

The Haven is Andover's senior citizen drop-in center located at 11 Essex Street in the old Andover Theater building and is open daily from 9 to 4 for Andover's over-60 population to use and enjoy.

Donahue Addresses Graduates

Brendan P. Donahue, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Donahue of 4 Longwood Drive, Andover, gave the senior class president address at Emerson College's 97th Commencement held May 29 at John Hynes Auditorium in Boston.

Donahue, who received at B.S. in Speech degree cum laude, expressed the importance of his training in the communication arts and sciences.

"What a wonderful opportunity I have been given by my parents, when I think of my deaf and non-verbal sister who struggles to communicate, and yet I have learned the art of communicating effectively. I will cherish this opportunity forever and strive to repair the communication problems that exist in our world."

Aside from being the senior class president, Donahue was president of Alpha Pi Theta Fraternity and was named the fraternity's Man of the Year. In 1975-76, he was president of the Emerson College Student Government Association and treasurer of that same organization in the preceding year.

A Dean's List student for three years, Donahue was also a member of the Gold Key Honor Society. During the past year, he hosted a radio show on WER-FM which showcased big band music, in addition to his many other activities.

Donahue's speech moved from what Emerson had given him to his current philosophy and a quip about Billy Carter.

"If we become active in the communication arts and sciences, because that is what we wanted to do, and we do it well, we are successful. If we become a good gas station attendant, because we wanted to, we are still successful... Believe me, I'm not knocking gas station attendants — look at Billy Carter."

Having worked as assistant campaign manager for Arlington selectman candidate Bob Walsh, Donahue also plans to enter the political arena, perhaps by running for local office in Massachusetts' 5th district.

Emerson's Commencement Address was given by actor Alan Alda, who received a Doctor of Humane Letters from the college. Others receiving honorary degrees were CBS correspondent and anchorman Morton Dean; award-winning entertainer Ben Vereen; and television producer Rod Parker.

Water Scarcity Report Termed 'Absurd'

Town Manager J. Maynard Austin has called "absolutely absurd" a report in last Wednesday's Boston Globe that Andover would face a severe water shortage by 1990.

The article claimed that at least 135 of the state's 351 cities would face a serious shortage, and named Andover among those most in biggest trouble, along with Amherst, Barnstable, Bedford, Boston, Framingham, Leominster, Tewksbury, Waltham and Westfield.

Austin said the article was apparently based on the rough draft of a report being prepared for the Department of Environmental Affairs.

He said the state hired consulting engineers to make the report and they did not check with the design engineers who made Andover's master water plan, the State Division of Water Supply officials who have approved all of Andover's projects, or Andover water department officials.

He said Department of Public Works Director Robert McQuade has requested a copy of the report and as soon as local officials study it, will take appropriate complaints to the state.

Selectman Richard J. Bowen noted that this kind of report can do Andover a great deal of damage, and Chairman Susan T. Poore added that it was particularly surprising to her because water is an area the selectmen have been diligently and thoroughly exploring.

In a written memo to Austin, McQuade said it was a "mystery" how information pertinent to Andover was obtained for the report and added that information about Andover that was read to him over the phone was "100 percent incorrect."

"It appears at this time," he said, "that this is a classic example of a state agency undertaking another study with taxpayers funds and not obtaining adequate information from the proper authorities within their own agency, of the Town concerned.

If after the report is reviewed, he said, the Globe writer's opinions appeared to be correct as based on the report, he said "every effort should be made to impress on Environmental Affairs Secretary Evelyn Murphy 'the damage a report of this type does, and that it is a direct misuse of State funds.'"

The Globe said that "Ironically, some of the towns facing the worst shortages by 1990 are in the most fertile river valleys."

It cited the Connecticut River Valley — where water comes from the wells, not the river — and said "The same is true in the Merrimack River Valley... where it claims Andover and Tewksbury will face critical shortages by 1990."

"Other Merrimack Valley communities, such as Haverhill, Lowell and Lawrence, would depend more heavily on the Merrimack, except that it is polluted," it said. Andover's situation is considered to optimistic by local officials, that Andover has actually begun selling water to neighboring communities on an emergency basis.

Phillips Allowed To Use 'Authentic' Town Seal

Phillips Academy has been given permission to use the Andover Town Seal on its Bicentennial coin — providing it uses the entire, "authentic" seal.

Selectman Richard Bowen noted Monday night that somehow the Indian on the seal has been changing, and is very different on some recent renditions than on the seal that's laid in tile in the floor of town hall.

The newer Indian, Bowen said, "looks more like a Sioux than one who fished the Shawsheen River."

The selectmen said they would be "counting" on Town Clerk Elden R. Salter to make sure any rendition used by P.A. had the correct number of feathers and in the correct places.

Frederick Peterson, chairman of P.A.'s celebration, said Andover residents will be very much a part of the festivities scheduled for June 1 to 4 next year.

In fact, he said, it is their hope that the town and the academy can participate together and cement the relationship that's always existed between the two.

The June 1 activities are geared particularly to local residents, and will include an assembly of music and speeches and a luncheon, as well as exhibits throughout the campus to show "what the students and faculty are up to."

Friday, the same offerings will be available to parents of academy students.

Saturday will be the climax of the celebration, with a morning parade down Main Street, a ceremony on the steps of Samuel Phillips Hall and a luncheon followed by an afternoon of sporting events and an evening of music in the hockey rink, dancing and fireworks.

Graduation will be held Sunday.

Selectman Edward M. Harris, who was on the committee to choose the design for Andover's Bicentennial medal, said that allowing P.A. to use the town seal is appropriate because the academy allowed the likenesses of Samuel Phillips and Samuel Phillips, Jr., to be used on the town's medal.

Peterson said work on the P.A. coin has not yet begun, but that the design committee wanted to know if it was possible to use the seal should it fit into their scheme.

Cynthia Reddish Graduates

Eleven Senior Girl Scouts from Merrimack River council were graduated from the Leader-in-Training program on June 6 at a special ceremony in Billerica.

Cynthia Reddish, Andover Senior Scout, was one of those honored. She received her yellow leader bar, signifying that she is prepared to assume the responsibility of leading a Girl Scout troop.

The graduation ceremony was the culmination of a year-long leadership training program sponsored by the council.

Cynthia served an "apprenticeship" under Mrs. Walter McHendry, leader of Brownie Troop 51 in Andover. Mrs. McHendry helped Cynthia learn some of the finer points of working with a group of girls. Cynthia observed the group interaction at first, then took a more active role in the leadership of the troop as she gained more experience.

Having completed the intensive L.I.T. course, Cynthia is ready to begin with a troop on her own. Training for leadership, however, does not end with L.I.T. All Girl Scout leaders are encouraged to take advantage of the wide range of training opportunities offered by the council.

Summer Program At Center

The New England Human Resource Center in Lawrence and Lowell will be conducting a new program during the Summer for children 3 through 5. Emphasis through the Summer will be based on play therapy, art therapy, and dance therapy. It is the goal of the center to provide more than just day care. Children involved will be given the opportunity to act out their feelings much like adults attempt to talk out their feelings.

The program will consist of three modules; one in the morning one in the afternoon and one on both morning and afternoon. The staff will consist of an art therapist, a dance therapist, a play therapist, a counselor and a psychologist. Parents will be urged to participate in the program when possible. It is a well known fact that the primary need for successful education of children is a sound mind and mental health.

During the summer experience the relationship between the therapists and the child make it possible to have the child's real self accepted, grow in self-confidence and more able to extend frontiers of his/her personality expression.

Parents can register their child through the summer. For more information please call the New England Human Resource Center, or write 36 Lawrence St., Lawrence.

reviewed more closely by us. Miss Harris said the company would be working with architects and others this week to determine what type of a timetable could be developed. Additional negotiation is also in the works with the Brothers regarding the final purchase agreement, she said.

But, the total project is still "Go" as far as Crowninshield is concerned, just a matter of "needing time now to sort things out," the vice president said.

While the decision has been some time in coming, (early February to Monday of this week) the board of appeals route still gives Crowninshield a better time frame to carry out its planning and construction.

Originally the town had desired to put the matter through town meeting action and have a new zoning classification for the proposed apartment development.

But, Crowninshield would not have been able to move on any financing or final planning until sometime late in October, due to statutory waiting periods following voter action, attorney general approval and a waiting period.

Now, with the board of appeals approval, formal planning and seeking of funding can take place much sooner. Crowninshield plans to convert the school building, the former administrative offices of the American Woolen company, into apartment units. The project is similar to work the firm has done in Peabody in converting a former tannery into apartments.

As part of the package, put together through the efforts of the Industrial Development Commission, the town was to obtain the playfields for recreation and open space. Also to be acquired is the bowling green area in front of the building.

In the decision filed Monday, Crowninshield will be allowed to develop 87 apartment units, with not more than 22 to be two bedroom units.

The board stated that its approval was based on such considerations the area having a blend of multi-family, industrial and business structures in the area and that the plan, with the fields to remain open, would not adversely affect the density factor in the area.

Other restrictions contained in the decision by Chairman Albert Cullen, Robert Domingue and Jane Griswold, included no structural exterior changes, parking lots to provide 125 spaces and be screened.

The variance is to be terminated if Crowninshield or a partnership involving the firm, Philip S. Singleton and Lawrence B. Collier is not the owner of the property by Dec. 31, 1977. A certificate of occupancy must be obtained, or work completed by April 1, 1979.

It has been over a year since the initial announcement of the Crowninshield proposal to the town.

When the Sacred Heart Brothers announced their intent to close the school, the town began efforts to work with the religious order to find a mutually acceptable plan to dispose of the property.

Working with the town has been the Friends of Shawshen, a neighborhood organization designed to protect the character of the village in the sale of the property.

The industrial development commission headed by Chairman Lawrence Spiegel was able to put together the package with Crowninshield as the principal. The development firm was intent on obtaining only the building for its purposes, with some additional land negotiated to accommodate the needed parking facilities.

Salamone

The board seemed surprised when Salter collected the second ballots tallied them and announced, "The vote is unanimous."

Mrs. Poore said she had expected the balloting, which didn't begin until after 10:30 p.m., to go "half the night."

Salamone, who has been involved locally in the Friends of Shawshen Neighborhood Association, lives at 9 Carisbrooke with his wife Ann Marie and children Beth and Matthew.

Brooklyn-bred, he received his A. B. degree in 1964 from Brooklyn College, and attended New York University's Graduate School of Public Administration. He was a Peace Corps volunteer in Brazil for two years, and has been a federal employee since.

He is currently staff advisor to the director of the Housing Management Division of the Boston office of the HUD (Department of Housing and Urban Development). As the on-site federal agent and advisor to local officials, he claims familiarity with the government structure and employees in neighboring Lawrence, Haverhill, Lowell, North Reading, Reading and Wilmington.

He has been involved in such matters as community fiscal planning and management, zoning, long and short term planning, capital improvement programs, and regional activities such as solid waste disposal, sewage treatment, housing and human services.

Water Rates

$80,000 for operation and maintenance of the town's system and $25,000 toward the Sanitary District.

"There's so much catching up to be done," he said, "it's simple justice."

In 1975, he said, when the policy was established to assess users for all costs connected with sewage, he said the 30-cent charge was based on all the information available at the time. However, he said, more information is available now which backs up the hike to 40 cents.

Chairman Susan Poore said that as long as the town is working under the existing policy, the selectmen are driven by the need to be fiscally responsible to the taxpayers. At least for the time being, she said, "we're using this increase as the mechanism."

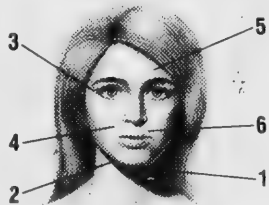

Reading a prepared statement on water rate revisions, Mrs. Poore said that the last "significant" change occurred in August, 1971. Since then, the Water Department budget has increased enormously, primarily because of the cost of electricity and chemicals. In fact, costs are rising about $15,000 a month.

The water rates have been generating less than 60 percent of the costs, whereas policy objective is for 70 percent of total expenditures. The balance is provided by taxation, for the purpose of fire protection.

The water hikes will be reflected in all billings on or after July 1. While the statement said the selectmen, acting as the Board of Water Commissioners, would like to have given full notice in advance, they said they felt the "emergency situation" merited a retroactive action.

In 1988 Quakers in Germantown, Pa., issued the first formal antislavery protest in the Western Hemisphere.

Art Fair At School

St. Augustine School recently held its annual Art Fair. Families and friends were invited to visit the school to see the children's work which included apple dolls, batiks, etchings, print-making crayon and mixed media, pencil drawings, pen and ink drawings, string art and copper enameling. The many beautiful items were greatly admired by those who visited. Among the participants were, from left, Miko Nakagawa, Glen Fortin, Cynthia Ahles, Brian Winters and Anne Delany.

EJHS Happenings

By Renee Pruneau

On June 10, the 1977-78 EJHS Student Council Officers were elected. The election followed a week of heavy campaigning by all candidates. It was a hard and close race and congratulations are due to all participants. Here are our '77-78 Student Council Officers: Sarah Driscoll, president; Susan Driscoll, vice president; Mark Easton, treasurer; Emyly Gerson, secretary.

The East Ninth Grade Chorus and G-Clefs have been entertaining the elementary schools. They visited South School, West Elementary and Sanborn School on Thursday, June 9, where they performed many fantastic numbers. They are planning on giving the same concert to the rest of the elementary schools in Andover in the very near future.

The East Girl's Softball Team finished their season. Their record was not one of the best, but their enthusiasm was. The Freshman Baseball Team completed their season with a 5-7 record. The seventh and eighth grade baseball team ended the year 6-6. The East Boy's Track Team had a fantastic 5-3 season. It's the EJH Girl's track team which really deserves praise. They completed their season 9-0 making this the second year that they've gone undefeated. They also placed first in the Watertown meet, which is one of the largest in this area breaking many old meet records. Many seventh and eighth grade girls were this year's record breakers, which makes one marvel when thinking about their strength next year.

By Walter Hunt
(Andover High Reporter)
There is always something nostalgic as well as melodramatic air that accompanies the graduation ceremonies of a high school on Wednesday, June 8, at the Field in sight of Andover School, the foregoing truths reiterated once again.

I was there, in the seats field in the blue costume, befit and bedeck the graduates, I, along with 477 others, receiving our diplomas to us exit from the Andover system, after (for some thirteen years of education).

The commencement featured Massachusetts Senator Edward Brooke as this year's speaker, whose appearance courtesy of Kimberley C. one of the two essayists daughter of former Congressional District Representative and Mrs. Paul C. THE TOWNSMAN, JUNE 16, 1977

By Walter Hunt
(Andover High Reporter)

There is always something of a nostalgic as well as melodramatic air that accompanies the graduation ceremonies of a high school; and on Wednesday, June 8, at Lovely Field in sight of Andover High School, the foregoing truism was reiterated once again.

I was there, in the seats on the field in the blue costumes that befit and bedeck the graduate — I, along with 477 others, at last receiving our diplomas to permit us exit from the Andover school system, after (for some of us) thirteen years of education.

The commencement featured Massachusetts Senator Edward Brooke as this year's guest speaker, whose appearance was courtesy of Kimberley Cronin, one of the two essayists and daughter of former 5th Congressional District Representative and Mrs. Paul Cronin. Senator Brooke's remarks well-received by audience and graduating class alike, dealt primarily with the topic of energy conservation.

"I could tell you," remarked the Senator, "that the world is your oyster. It isn't anybody's oyster. But it is full of great opportunity and challenge."

The matter of AHS students' cultural appreciation was also mentioned by retiring class President David Stein — that the class had helped to "destroy the image of AHS as a cultural wasteland."

Stein also called for community support of an auditorium for community activities (the approval of preliminary investigation of which was voted 5-0 by the School committee during May. This matter is one which will become increasingly more important to Andover citizens.

Music was provided by the underclassmen band during the ceremonies and the full band prior to the commencement. The chorus, performing a medley of tunes from "Pippins" was conducted by Anita Brown with Andy Campbell accompanying and "America", rendered by the Concert Band, featured Connie M. Fogg as vocalist.

This year's AFS students, David Morris (Australia), and Carmen Bokin (Marshall Islands), presented flags to the rapidly-growing collection of Mrs. Molly Ryden and the High School's AFS chapter. ABC gave its farewells on behalf of six graduates, in the person of Theodore Pugh.

Some who sat in that audience where I was sitting, watching the clouds and sun play "musical chairs, wiped a tear of regret from their eyes as they watched the ceremony drift slowly on, with the weight of precedent and tradition on its shoulders; some breathed a sigh of relief.

Some, I'll grant, had entirely mixed feelings about the whole thing. Certainly I am among them — it took a long time for the members of this year's graduating class to get as far as they have, a lot of work and determination and, occasionally, hurdling obstacles and running into walls head-first. High school, like its predecessor institutions, is a shelter, and every one of the 470 who received the diploma have paid the admission

Six A.B.C. Students Graduate

Thirty-four students have graduated from Andover's A.B.C. Program since the program began here in 1967, and most have gone on to succeed in college and careers. Some have even started to send contributions to the program they felt gave them A Better Chance.

The six who graduated last Wednesday from Andover High, however, have as impressive scholastic and community records as any. All six have been on the High School Honor roll and all six were accepted to several quality colleges, mostly with fine financial aid packages.

They were honored at a part at West Parish Church following commencement ceremonies.

On hand were their host families, the sort of parents-in-absentia with whom they've spent weekends, Wednesday dinners and some school vacations over the past three years — and many of their real parents, siblings, aunts and uncles.

Joanne Bowden of Philadelphia, whose host family was Mr. and Mrs. Ross Anderson, will be attending Temple University in her native Philadelphia, where she'll major in journalism. Joanne excelled in academics and wrote the dedication to the Andover High School Yearbook.

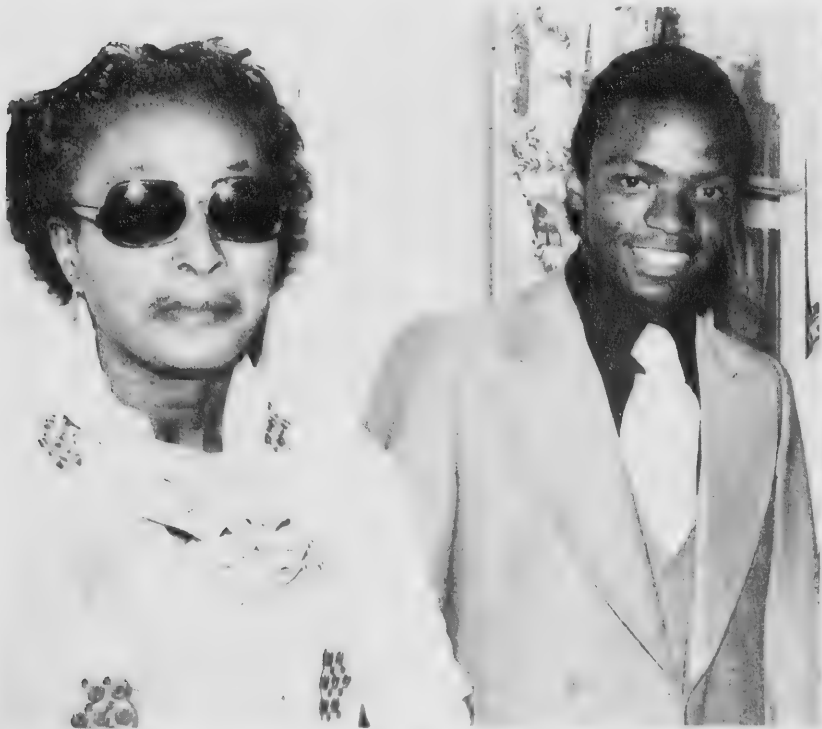

Pamela Holland, who hails from Washington, D. C., will be a special education major at Leslie College. She has been involved with children, and was a volunteer at Christ Church Nursery for the Handicapped. Her host family was Mr. and Mrs. Michael Baron.

Diane David, from The Bronx, will be studying business administration at Drexel University. Host daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jess Chernak, she has been a tutor in algebra.

Ralph Higgs, from Kittrell, N. C., will be returning South to Duke University, to study business. "Higgsy" helped break a high school relay record at the Northern States Track Meet, and was a member of the Student Advisory Council. His host family was the Glenn Cunninghams.

Theodore M. Pugh III, from Pittsburgh, Pa., will be attending Dartmouth College. Ted had an after school job and was particularly involved in the Methodist Youth Fellowship. He was the host son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Leith.

Andy Chatto from Brooklyn will be attending Columbia University. Sports editor of the yearbook, he received the Lawrence Eagle Tribune award as Outstanding Performer in Track in 1977. His host family was Dr. and Mrs. David Ahouse.

Expressive Therapies Course Set

The Institute for the Arts and Human Development of the Lesley College Graduate School of Education is co-sponsoring with the Addison Gallery Phillips Academy a Summer Colloquium in the Expressive Therapies. The unusual colloquium, which will be held at the Addison Gallery of American Art, will take place from June 27 through July 1.

A faculty of leading artists and therapists will explore key issues in the therapeutic use of the arts. Seminar workshops will address themselves to problem areas such as the development of a unified approach to the expressive therapies of art, dance, drama, music and poetry. A major theme is how to fully integrate expressive therapies into mental health service programs. Last month, the Lesley Institute for the Arts and Human Development initiated "Arts for the Handicapped" in Massachusetts, a week-long celebration of the artistic abilities of and by the handicapped.

Another Hurdle Crossed

The board of appeals this week granted a variance to the Crowninshield Corp. for conversion of the Sacred Heart School building to apartment use, thus removing another hurdle in the path of the development of the total Shawsheen package.

It is anticipated that with the variance, the developers may now proceed with the funding activity and the construction work necessary to create the apartment complex in Shawsheen.

This, in turn, should pave the way for the town to acquire the playfields, bowling green and Cardinal Cushing Gymnasium, part of the total Sacred Heart package the Brothers of the Sacred Heart have been attempting to sell for over a year.

In the process of looking toward the total development, we think it advisable to commend the Board of Appeals for its careful deliberation on a touchy matter — the conducting of a hearing and ultimately coming up with a decision on the Sacred Heart building itself.

The zoning board of appeals is a quasi-judiciary body of the town, with responsibility of upholding the zoning ordinances, and protection of the town.

Crowninshield Corp., which had announced its plans to develop the school structure into apartment units, initially was to await the action of town meeting in creating a new zoning classification for the project.

But town meeting action would be time consuming to the developers. It would be some 120 days before the town could go forward with its financing plans and construction work on conversion of the building.

Crowninshield, interested in taking advantage of a good money market and timely construction period, sought the board of appeals route and asked for the variance.

While town officials would feel more secure with the town meeting action, there was no opposition to going for the variance on the part of the town.

The board of appeals members conducted its hearing in February and working with town officials, legal authorities and the proposed developers, this week came up with an approval of the request, and included a number of conditions which appear to adequately safeguard the town.

For the board members, the decision took considerable time to process, and rightly so.

They are unpaid volunteers working in the public interest and, in this case, their decision would have considerable import on the town.

Their task was to view the project and their ability to grant the requested relief, without harming the area, and at the same time providing impetus to a packaged project which appears to be most beneficial to the town.

We would hope that the remaining portions of the total package can be put together quickly and that Crowninshield will be able to accelerate its planning and construction work to the point where the Shawsheen area will be developed and become tax-producing soon.

Proposed Tech Center

This artist's rendering, based upon a recently completed master plan, illustrates Andover Tech Center, the 560-acre corporate and research park located at the I-93 and River Road interchange in Andover. The center's first occupant, Hewlett-Packard Company, completed the first building of their multi-building complex last year for their Medical Electronics Division. This complex, which is indicated in the foreground of this rendering, is situated on a 118-acre site in the northwest quadrant of the center. Negotiations are currently in progress with several other major tenant proposals. Owner and developer of Andover Tech Center is Arkwright-Boston Insurance, a 125-year old mutual insurance company with headquarters in Waltham at Hobbs Brook Park, another Arkwright-Boston development. Development consultants are Spaulding & Co. Inc. of Newton Lower Falls. R. M. Bradley & Co., Inc. is exclusive leasing agent.

WEEKLY SPECIAL

Corruption and Fires Kill Public

by Jack Anderson
with Joe Spear

WASHINGTON -- Over the Memorial Day weekend, more than 100 persons died in a terrifying Kentucky night club fire. Scores more were badly burned. The inferno shocked the country.

But the most surprising thing about the tragedy is that it doesn't happen more often. According to the International Safety Institute, there is an average of 169 fires every day in public places.

This includes bowling alleys, movie theaters, bars and night clubs. The experts tell us that entertainment centers are ripe for disaster.

There are dozens of reasons for the danger. But according to investigators, the biggest problem is the failure of local officials to enforce strict fire codes. Investigators have found many instances of bribery, corruption and ineptitude among the officials responsible for building safety.

The practice of accepting small five-and-ten-dollar payoffs to wink at violations results in thousands of blazes every year. It is a national problem. Little is being done to stamp out corruption, prevent fires and save lives.

Malignant Milk: A new, nationwide study reveals that some 20 toxic chemicals have been found in mothers' milk.

Some of the chemicals can cause cancer and all are poisonous. Yet one in 10 women who were tested had large amounts of the dangerous chemicals in their milk.

Some experts told us there is no cause for alarm. But other experts are highly alarmed. They say the poisons are hazardous not only to babies who nurse but to unborn babies because the chemicals in breast milk nourish the unborn fetus.

Among the poisonous substances found in the milk are the chemicals PBB and PCB. Four pesticides, including DDT, were also detected.

In fact, one expert told us that if mothers' milk could be packaged and sold in stores, it would have to be banned under federal law.

Courting Congress: President Carter has quietly hired a congressional expert to improve his relations with the curmudgeons on Capitol Hill.

The honeymoon between Carter and the curmudgeons has been stormy. In public, they have exchanged compliments; both Carter and the congressional leaders are skilled at pouring on the molasses. But in the back-rooms, the compliments have turned to complaints.

One complaint was that White House aides are too inexperienced to deal with congressional veterans. So the president hired a new lobbyist who knows how to get along with crusty old congressmen.

He is William Cable, the former staff director of the House Administration Committee. He went to work quietly for the White House last week.

Mitchell in Danger? Justice Dept. officials are privately worried about locking former Atty. Gen. John Mitchell behind bars.

He raised "law and order" as a campaign cry for Richard Nixon in 1968. Then Nixon put Mitchell in charge of law and order at the Justice Dept.

Mitchell ordered the prosecution of many men who are now in prison. As Attorney General, he also took a severe view toward federal prisoners. Now Mitchell will be locked up with these men. Some Justice Dept. officials fear his life may be in danger.

Incidentally, his keeper will be the man he appointed to head the federal prison system in 1970. The same man, Norman Carlson, is still running the prisons.

But Mitchell shouldn't expect any favors. He snubbed Carlson's appointment ceremonies and sent a substitute instead.

No Hippies in Havana: Cuban Premier Fidel Castro is widely admired among the hippies. Many have grown beards to emulate him. Now they are free to visit their hero in Cuba.

But they may be in for a disappointment. Diplomatic reports warn that Fidel and his brother, Raul, believe in strict self-discipline. They have nothing but disgust for the drug culture. And they associate the hippies with drugs.

The word is that the Castro brothers don't want pot-smoking hippies polluting their spartan society, beards or no beards.

Burlington Rose Show

June is the month for roses and thousands of these beautiful flowers will be exhibited at the Burlington Mall, Burlington, on Saturday, June 18, from 9:30 a.m. to 9:30 p.m.

Sponsored by the New England Rose Society and the Mass. Horticultural Society, the 37th Annual Rose Show will include all types of roses, from Miniatures to Hybrid Teas, from Florabundas to Climbers.

The show will be a festival of soft colors — pinks, yellows, reds and whites. Many new varieties and introductions will be exhibited, so that New Englanders can see them for the first time.

Several Rose Society members will prepare lavish displays, such as Carl Jones of Barrington, R. I., who annually landscapes one entire area with his beautiful roses.

Another feature of the show is the "Rose Doctor" booth, with experts on hand throughout the show to give out free information on where to buy roses, what varieties to pick, how to care for them and much more.

The exhibits will be in the Main Concourse of the Mall, located by exits 41 and 42 off Route 128 in Burlington. The Mall is completely covered and air-conditioned — and after the Rose Society sets up their displays, it will also be a fragile fairyland of beautiful blooming flowers.

Split Leaves Ruthers In Second

THE TOWNSMAN, JUNE 16, 1977

By Rick Harrison

The Andover Babe Ruth baseball team split a pair of recent games, slugging North Lawrence 12-3 and bowing to North Andover, 5-2.

The results left the locals with a 3-2 record in Greater-Lawrence League play, tied for second place 1½ games behind NA.

Andover, 12-3

Andover opened up early against North Lawrence, grabbing a 3-0 advantage in the bottom of the first.

With two outs Brian Kelly beat out an infield hit, bill Stahley walked, and both runners moved up on a passed ball. Bob Patterson lashed an RBI single to centerfield, and Pete Feeney followed with a two-run double.

Andover sent nine batters to the plate and doubled the spread to 6-0 in the second inning.

Steve Rathbun and Jason Powell led with consecutive walks, and when Lary Larrabee's bunt was misplayed the bases were loaded.

Bob Heidt singled home a run, Kelly was hit by a pitch to force in a run, and Stahley lofted a sacrifice fly to centerfield for the final marker of the inning.

North Lawrence broke through in the third with a run off starting pitcher Steve Rathbun, combining a walk to Jose Santiago, an infield hit by Ron Masucci, and a throwing error.

Andover upped the count to 7-1 in the fourth when Patterson beat out an infield hit, took second on a walk to Pete Feeney, and scored on Pete Gravalles's single to leftfield.

Two more errors, a walk and Tony Masucci's double cut the lead to 7-3 in the fifth, but Rathbun pitched out of danger with North Lawrence runners at second and third and no outs.

NA threatened again in the top of the sixth, after Rathbun walked two batters.

Bob Patterson came on in relief and pitched out easily, inducing a strikeout and two pops to the mound.

Andover iced the decision with a five-run outburst in the last of the sixth. Two-run doubles by Gravalles and Jon Pelletier were the big blows, while Pete Feeney added a single and walks were issued to Stahley, Patterson, Rathbun and Brett Pearson. Rathbun and Patterson combined for a three-hitter.

Bob Patterson led the Andover attack with 3-for-3 and three runs scored, while Pete Feeney was 2-for-3 and Pete Gravalles 2-for-4. Jason Powell also stroked a single.

North Andover, 5-2

North Andover took advantage of two costly Andover miscues to chalk up three unearned runs, and twice the locals left runners stranded at second and third with one out in the 5-2 game Monday night.

Bob Patterson scattered nine hits and fanned four in a route-going effort for Andover, while NA hurler Dave Walsh allowed just five safeties and whiffed five.

North Andover, which left 11 runners aboard, took a 2-0 edge in the third when Dave Bouchard doubled down the leftfield line, Frank Gelinis walked, and both scored on a two-out infield error.

Wayne Merola opened the Andover third with a double, took third on Lary Larrabee's bunt, and raced across when Brian Kelly grounded out. Bill Stahley followed with a double but was left stranded.

NA added a run in the fourth. Bob Walmsley led with a triple to rightfield and Gelinis drew a one-out walk. Rick Camire bounced into a forceout, and the locals just missed the doubleplay as Walmsley scored.

Dave Walsh then walked and Rick Roche singled to load the bases, but Patterson bore down to whiff Howie Coon for the third out.

Mark Androski doubled and scored on a sacrifice fly in the fifth.

Also in the fifth, Andover notched an unearned run of its own.

Wayne Merola reached on an outfield error and Lary Larrabee was safe on a fielder's choice. Brian Kelly beat out a bunt single, and when the throw hit him Merola scampered home to make it 4-2.

Bill Stahley bunted Kelly to second, leaving men at second and third with one down, but Walsh fanned the next two hitters.

The final run came in the sixth when Camire stroked a one-out single, took third on Walsh's double, and scored when Rich Roche singled.

The winners again loaded the bases with one out, but Patterson again pitched tough as Mark Androski popped to first baseman Bob Heidt and Greg Serio skied to Lary Larrabee in center.

Lary Larrabee and Steve Rathbun added singles for Andover, while Rick Roche, Bob Walmsley and Dave Bouchard were all 2-for-4 to spark NA.

Stats

Wayne Merola continues to lead the Andover regulars in hitting with a .455 average, followed by Brian Kelly at .385, Pete Feeney, .357, Pete Gravalles .333 and Bob Patterson .287 through games Monday night.

Jason Powell and Jon Pelletier, two 13-year-old rookies, are at .500 although both are just 1-for-2.

Andover has outscored five opponents 27-17, and the locals' pitching staff has permitted only six earned runs in 34 innings.

Schedule

Andover battled South Lawrence East and South

Lawrence West earlier this week, after TOWNSMAN presstime.

Next week the locals face Prospect Hill Monday night under the lights at the Stadium (8 p.m.), battle Tower Hill Tuesday at Mount Vernon, and meet North Lawrence Wednesday at O'Connell Playstead.

Soccer Teams Slosh Their Way To Titles

By Marc D. Koolen

It was a sloppy day Saturday, but it did not dampen the spirit and enthusiasm of the Andover Soccer players, as they were victorious in all four home games played in the sufficiently muddy conditions. The first game was between the Andover Bullets and Georgetown. Andover won this battle in the downpour 4-0. Coach Drake mentioned that it was a great team effort that allowed them to score a shutout, and the win propelled the Bullets to the Northern division 11-12 Crown. They will enter the Eastern Mass Playoffs the 17th, 6 p.m. vs. Peabody, Buckley Stadium.

As the rain eased a bit, the Sanborn Strikers took the field against a strong Lawrence team. Lawrence scored first to go ahead 1-0 but Andover bounced back scoring 3 goals in the first half and two in the second. Scott West scored first followed by Chris Cootes, and then David Lucier scored his first goal of the year. In the second half Tom Maginnis scored, followed by the final tally by Brandon Bachner. The Strikers finished second in their division to The Bullets, with the only difference being a 3-2 win by the Bullets in a mid-week game between the two teams. It was an outstanding season for both teams as they provided more competition than any one in the league could handle.

Field conditions were still muddy when the two U-14 teams, the Golden Eagles and the Cosmos, played with the Cosmos coming out on top 6-0. With this victory they clinched the Northern division title, by one point over a strong Peabody team. It was obvious that the thoughts of play offs were helping the Cosmos to click together on the slippery field. The Golden Eagles threatened a number of times but were unable to put the ball in the net. The Cosmos play Marblehead to determine the Essex County Champ.

While this game was being played on the main field the Athletics were demonstrating to a Marblehead team how much improvement they had made in this first season. The Athletics had played this same team back in March. It was their first game and the first time they had been together. The score of that game was 5-0 Marblehead. In this rematch the skills the boys had learned from coaches Barlow and Thoday were self-evident, and they dominated the game and won 2-0. All the boys played great soccer, and some brilliant p-lays were made by David Bartle who scored both goals. First time Goalie Glenn Livermore earned the shutout.

The Athletics play Marblehead III away next Saturday for their final game. The Andover Golden Warriors and the Gazells had their games postponed, with the Warriors playing their makeup on the 16th on the Small field at 8 and the Gazells played their make up on Sunday afternoon when they defeated Merrimack 2-0. Chris Bedell scored in the first half, and that would be all they needed but Doug Price scored an insurance goal in the second half on a penalty kick. Rick Travis played well at fullback, and Eric Bernardin and Craig Lebowitz both had scoring opportunities and could not convert.

Two more division titles were earned on Sunday. The first was earned by a forfeit as the Haverhill team did not show up. This was very disappointing but none the less with the points received from the forfeit the Andover team, The Golden Ales, won the Northern division title. This gives them home field advantage over Saugus. During this past week the Ales had won a hard played game against Saint John's senior team 2-1. The winning goal was scored by Frank Comparato in the second half, but St. Johns went ahead in the first half and it wasn't until the very end of the first half that Tony Cammarata scored the equalizer. The play was on a nice centering ball which the full back misplayed into their own net. Dave Johnson, George Donovan, and Peter Hesketh all played very well, with Steve Savaran being very strong in nets.

The last divisional title which was captured was the U-16 Crown which the Golden Strikers snatched from Merrimack Sunday afternoon before a large contingent of fans at Sacred Heart. Steve Luby scored the first goal on a fine shot. Tom Keefe then scored on a penalty shot. David Yates then made it 3-0 on another nice shot and that was the score at half time. At the start of the half Merrimack came right back and scored to bring the score to 3-1 but John Kinsky put to an end their chances by scoring on a perfect cross from Brian Hardy. It was the play of the day. Brian then proceeded to score his own goal on a corner kick that was deflected in by a defender. Todd Orlando moved alertly in goal allowing only his second goal of the year.

Jamboree Scouts Prepare For High Adventure

Thirty-six Boy Scouts and four adult leaders from Andover, North Andover, Lawrence and Methuen will gather at Camp Onway, Raymond, N. H. on the weekend of June 24-26 to organize the Jamboree troop.

The pre-jamboree training camp will afford the boys an opportunity to become familiar with the actual equipment to be used at the jamboree. Troop 304 will practice camping and cooking skills of the type scheduled for the jamboree. The weekend program will also include planning for jamboree activities and practice for inter-troop contests. Troop 304, made up of scouts from 14 troops in North Essex Council, will attend the ninth National Scout Jamboree at Moraine State Park near Butler, Pa. The local group will join with 28,000 scouts and scouters from all across the United States and several foreign countries. The jamboree program features are planned to reflect the skills of scouting, our national heritage, and the spirit of brotherhood. Recreation will offer fun and challenge; religious services will provide time for reflection, and a cavalcade of highlight events will further depict the rich heritage of scouting and the range of its programs.

According to Harry Bedell, assistant scoutmaster for the group, 16 days of scouting adventure have been planned around the jamboree experience. The troop will leave July 30 by chartered bus on a tour which includes the National Scout Headquarters in New Jersey, Annapolis Naval Academy and two days sightseeing in Washington, D. C. before traveling to Moraine State Park. After nine days of fun and adventure at the Jamboree, the group will camp at the Gettysburg National Historic Park and tour the battle fields and Pennsylvania Dutch country before returning home August 14.

Any scout at least 12 years of age and holding the second class rank or higher is eligible to participate in this high adventure experience. A few openings are still available in the troop. For complete information contact the North Essex Council office, Ronald P. Lacroix, scoutmaster or Harry R. Bedell, assistant scoutmaster.

Billy Vickers Turns In Top Effort

Determined Effort

By Rick Harrison

A number of Andover Little League games were played between the raindrops last week, and three-way races are developing in both the American and National Divisions for the second half pennant.

The Twins, red Sox and Yankees all jumped off to fast starts in the AL, while the first-half titlist Cardinals, Giants and Pirates are making early moves in the NL.

Top pitching effort of last week was by Billy Vickers of the Yankees, who fashioned a perfect game for five innings before settling for a two-hit, 3-1 victory over the White Sox.

National Major Second Half

Cards, 4-0

Winning pitcher Chris O'Reilly of the Cards and losing hurler Jeff Morton of the Braves matched three-hitters, but the Cards pushed across three unearned runs enroute to a soggy 4-0 triumph.

The shutout was O'Reilly's second of the season, and it was also the second straight blank job by a Cards' pitcher in the second half. Paul Tarro blitzed the Pirates 2-0 earlier.

Zack Apgar, Dave Starensier and Carl Schwind rapped singles for the winners, while Tom

Dave Factor, 11, shows good form in delivery for the Pirates in Little League action at the playstead during the past week.

LaPorte lashed two singles and Dave LaPorte had one for the Braves.

Giants, 12-4

Winning chucker J. J. Downey also stroked a pair of hits, as the defending NL champion Giants trimmed the Dodgers 12-4 for their fifth victory in the last six games.

The Giants are 2-0 for the second half.

Rick Apgar and Mike Lucey chipped in two safeties apiece, while the Dodgers' Scott Robichaud cracked a two-run double.

Pirates, 2-1

Undefeated righthander Bill Feeney 5-0 won his fifth consecutive decision for the Pirates, scattering four hits as the Bucs nipped the Cubs 2-1.

Bob McLaughlin, one of the premiere NL pitchers, was the tough-luck loser on a two-hitter.

Dave Factor and Feeney had the two Pirates' safeties, and both scored one run.

John Crawford did the bulk of the damage for the Cubs, lacing three hits and scoring the lone tally.

Braves, 4-3

Mike Twomey made his first complete game a memorable one, twirling a three-hitter as the Braves shaded the Mets 4-3.

John Atanasoff was the batting hero, spiking the game-winning RBI single in the sixth inning. Tom LaPorte added a run-scoring single for the Braves.

The Mets made their hits count. Frank DePiano slugged a two-run double in the top of the sixth that tied the game briefly, 3-3. Bob Ruel banged an RBI single and Steve Umanzio tripled.

Mets, 13-3

Winning pitcher Frank DePiano, Ed O'Connor and Bob Ruel drilled two hits apiece for the Mets, who broke into the second-half win column with a convincing 13-3 triumph over the Cubs.

Powering the Cubs' attack with doubles were Len Cuddy, Colin Radford and John Best.

NL Stats

With the season two-thirds over, NL statistician Tom Landry has compiled the following batting and pitching figures.

Pitching

Bill Feeney of the Pirates, at 5-0, and Paul Tarro of the Cards 4-0 have the best overall pitching records.

Dave Factor of the Pirates and Bob McLaughlin of the Cubs are tops in complete games with six apiece.

Chris O'Reilly of the Cards and McLaughlin lead in shutouts with two each, and McLaughlin has the most low-hit games with a solo one-hitter and a pair of two-hitters.

Fred Lemay of the Dodgers has the only complete game no-hitter, although the Giants' Greg Sacco and Chris Scarpa combined on a no-hit masterpiece.

McLaughlin is the runaway leader in strikeouts with 72, while Factor is second in the "fireball race" with 55 Ks.

McLaughlin twice has fanned 14 hitters in a game, while Tarro has whiffed 14 once.

Batting

Chris O'Reilly has the lead in extra-base hits with 11.

John Best of the Cubs is tops in doubles with nine, while John Crawford of the Cubs is second in two-baggers with seven.

Kurt Smith of the Giants leads the league in triples with three.

Four players share the top spot in homers with two apiece. Matt Keley, Vito Caiati, O'Reilly and Dave Factor are the slugging leaders.

O'Reilly and the Mets' Ed O'Connor lead in multiple hit games, getting more than one safety in six games each.

The top single game efforts still belong to Cards' teammates Mark Grams and O'Reilly, who drilled four hits.

Tops in walks is John Atanasoff of the Braves who has drawn 12 free passes, while Giants' team-

Defensively, the Sox reeled off their eighth doubleplay with Tom Powers, Jeff Demers and Dave Hering doing the honors. Right-fielder Joe Nerden made two fine catches, and Andy Emmert starred behind the plate.

Red Sox, 9-8

The Red Sox won their seventh straight game, and went to 4-0 in the second half, edging the White Sox 9-8 in a wild contest Monday night.

Both clubs scored three times in the first inning, and then the White Sox grabbed a 4-3 edge in the second. The Red Sox exploded for five in the third and an 8-4 edge, but the Pale Hose retaliated with four in the fourth to tie it 8-8.

Things then calmed down until the sixth, when the Red Sox pushed across an unearned run to win it.

The deciding marker was scored by Jeff Demers, who singled and later came across when Andy Emmert's grounder was misplayed.

Mike Coelho was the winning pitcher in relief, working out of a bases-loaded, no-out jam in the sixth after relieving starter Tom Powers.

Demers finished 3-for-4, including a double, and he scored three times as well as driving home a run.

Coelho cracked a two-run double, Joe Nerden had a two-run single, Powers a run-scoring single, and Dave Hering singled and scored once.

The Sox, whose winning streak is longest in the AL this year, clicked off doubleplay No. 9 from Coelho to Demers to Hering. Centerfielder Hering (who also played several innings at first) and rightfielder Chuck Frazzette made run-saving shoestring catches, while the keystone combo of Demers and Coelho played well.

National Minors Pirates, 10-2

The defending National Minor League Pirates heightened the interest in the homestretch, dumping the first-place Cardinals 10-2 behind the one-hit pitching of Wayne Carver.

The result left the Cards at 10-3, while the Pirates are 9-4 as the final week of the regular season is in progress. The Reds are also in contention at 7-3-1, but have several makeup games.

Carver and Chris Wilson were embroiled in a fine pitcher's duel in this key game for several innings, but Chris tired at the end and the Bucs took advantage.

Carver helped himself with a triple and two singles, John Williams tripled, and singles were delivered by Dan Fraser, Kelly O'Shea and John Deeron.

Harold Whitworth singled for the lone Cards' safety.

Astros, 13-5

Craig Ziady belted a homerun and double to back winning hurler John Lahoud, as the Astros stopped the Braves 13-5.

Joe Dadiago added a double and single, Julie Chubbuck tripled and Scott Kimball laced two singles for the Astros.

Ron Lis starred for the Braves with a double, three singles and fine defensive play. Other fielding standouts for the Braves were Mike Hobbs and Pete Stelzner.

Pirates, 18-9

Kelly O'Shea's grand slam homerun set the tempo for the Pirates, as they slugged the Giants 18-9 in the tuneup for the Cards' showdown.

Wayne Carver chipped in a triple and single, while John Williams smacked a double to back pitcher Mark Patti.

Steve Rogers spanked a pair of singles for the Giants while Phil Appleton, Kevin Griffin and Pete Devney added singles.

Astros, 16-10

Mark Paradis slammed a homerun, two doubles and a single to power the Astros to a 16-10 victory over the Redlegs 7-4-1.

Brother Dan Paradis chipped in four singles, while winning pitcher Jimmy Burgess helped himself with two singles and a double. Craig Ziady, in addition to hurling effective relief, lashed three singles and a double for the Astros.

Art Muldoon hammered a homerun and single for the Reds, while Joel Brother added a pair of doubles.

Braves, 11-9

The Braves completed a 5-9 season with an 11-9 conquest of the Giants Monday night.

Pete Stelzner led the victors' multi-hit attack with two doubles and a brace of singles. Mike Hobbs contributed a double and two singles, Rich Sullivan doubled, Paul Kinsella and Ron Lis laced a pair of singles each, and Don Whalen delivered a single. Dave Swedler was the winning chucker.

The Giants were sparked by Andy Thompson and Steve Rogers, both of whom rapped a double and single.

The Department of Defense, General Services Administration and the Veterans Administration will use solar hot water heaters wherever possible, Massachusetts Audubon points out. As a result, it is expected there will be increased demand for solar technology, a reduction in per-unit costs as mass production techniques are developed, and a reduction in the cost of installing solar equipment.

We go to swim in bigger pools with far more carnivorous fish and in so doing learn to be realists, if we haven't acquired the hardbaked exterior, which typifies contact with the world, already. Some have college ahead, some have trades ahead. Some I'll warrant, haven't considered that far yet.

Farewell to the Class of 1977 — and to me, as well. This is my final article for the Andover TOWNSMAN, for which I have reported on activities at Andover High School since September. It has been an enjoyable experience and educational as well. (It also

Museum Makes Hay

The rapidly vanishing art of Salt Marsh Haying is the subject of a new exhibit opening on June 6 at the Peabody Museum of Salem. With pictures and implements it traces 300 years of reaping hay in Essex County's salt marshes. You can still buy that bale to cover your roses in the fall. But the jealously guarded boundaries of individual marshes are becoming lost. Farmers no longer depend on the once valuable plots to feed their cattle.

The whole vocabulary associated with this ancient agricultural art sounds like a lost language. Who knows what snaths and staddles are today? Gundalows were a far cry from the airy boats that sweep along the canals of Venice. And bog shoes belong on a horse, not an Irish peat farmer. The Peabody Museum show traces the long development of salt marsh haying. With the exhibit is a continual slide show with rare pictures of the process

Earnings, Sales Up At H-P

Hewlett-Packard Company today reported a 22 percent increase in sales and a 35 percent increase in earnings for the Second Quarter of the company's fiscal year.

Sales for the second quarter ended April 30 totaled $341,546,000, compared with $279,764,000, for the corresponding quarter of fiscal 1976.

Net earnings amounted to $32,084,000, equal to $1.13 per share on 28,220,433 shares of common stock outstanding. This compares with earnings of $23,771,000, equal to 86 cents per share on 27,821,990 shares, during last year's second quarter.

William R. Hewlett, HP president, said the net earnings of $1.13 a share were achieved after the company had set aside approximately $6 million in the second quarter to supplement retirement benefits to a large number of its U.S. employees. The $6 million, although recorded in the second quarter, represents an accrual for the entire first half. The effect on net earnings for the quarter and first half was approximately 11 cents per share.

"A study undertaken by the company earlier in the year indicates that our present profit-sharing retirement plan, which has been in existence since 1956, should be supplemented on a regular basis to increase retirement benefits for a large number of our domestic employees."

Hewlett said. "Details of a new program are expected to be completed by the end of the current fiscal year."

In reviewing the company's operations for the second quarter, Hewlett noted that net earnings represented 9.4 percent of sales. This compares with 8.5 percent for the corresponding quarter a year ago. Incoming orders amounted to $362,398,000, a gain of 33 percent over orders of $271,500,000, a gain of 33 percent over orders of $271,386,000, up 26 percent from a year ago.

Sales for the six months amounted to $639,880,000 a 24 percent increase over the first half of 1976. Net earnings increased 50 percent to $58,142,000, equal to $2.06 a share. This compares with earnings of $38,847,000, equal to $1.40 a share, during the corresponding period last year.

Loading A Musket

Loading a 1775 flintlock required 10 separate motions. The loader tore the paper cartridge with his teeth, sprinkled powder in the priming pan, then rammed the cartridge down the barrel with his ramrod. Pulling the trigger, the hammer (holding a flint) struck a spark to ignite the powder in the pan, and this fired the cartridge. Loading and firing took 20 seconds. For national defense, today's minutemen — the Massachusetts National Guard, are equipped with modern, automatic rifles that fire many times in a minute.

REAL ESTATE

Join National Home Relocation Service

Gurry & Flynn Real Estate are now affiliated with National Home Relocation Service. The nationwide network of independent brokers' sole concern is to offer relocation services to their clients moving out of the member broker's area.

Gurry & Flynn's clients pay nothing for this added service. It is simply Gurry & Flynn's way of maintaining "back home" business responsibility to their clients who move away.

National Home Relocation Service has members that service over 1,000 communities, in all fifty states, and some countries. The local broker contacts a member office in his transferring client's new city. The realtor broker in that city will screen homes, pick-up clients at airports, arrange temporary quarters, etc. Constant contact is made between both brokers, as well as with the home office of National Home Relocation Service. In this way, independent brokers can remain independent and yet be connected with a nationwide referral network.

Gurry & Flynn Real Estate is located at 66 Main Street in Andover.

Ground-dwelling birds are students of sound as they must guard against intruders, investigations show. Birds that sing a wide range of notes and have a loosely formed inherited song are good mimics, Massachusetts Audubon tells us.

The satin bowerbird of Australia nests on the ground, and mimics creaking branches, squeaking rabbits, croaking frogs, shouting men, tinkling bells and the roar of a motorcycle and chain saw.
